MADAME AZALIA HACKLEY,
The peerless prima donna at Lincoln Memorial Church

EDUCATION IN MISSOURI.

Lincoln Institute to get a Hand some Appropriations—President Allen's Good Work—Concert Notes.

Jefferson City, Mo., Special—The Missouri Legislature is now in session in Jefferson City. Many important bills are coming up for discussion, but the dominant idea in the minds of the students, and those directly interested in the welfare of Lincoln Institute, is the appropriation bill for the maintenance of this institution for the ensuing two years.

Missouri has always been liberal in its support of the Institute and there is every reason to believe that the liberality which has paid such excellent dividends to the State in the way of intelligent citizenship will be continued by this Legislature.

President Allen is making an excellent record with the Board of Regents, and law makers, as a wise financier, as a man of first-rate executive ability, and judgement, in all matters pertaining to school management.

Detachments of legislators frequently visit the Institute, and to a man each one expressed himself as agreeably surprised at the character of the work that is being accomplished; the number of students in attendance; their general bearing; the appearance of the buildings, etc.

Active preparations are now being made for the concert, which is to be given by the students at an early date, probably in the Hall of the House of Representatives.

These concerts are looked forward to with much interest by the law-makers and their families, the citizens of Jefferson City, etc.

Although a state school, religious instruction is not lost sight of in Lincoln Institute. On the character, careful attention is paid to this matter through the Afternoon Sunday service held in the school Auditorium. Attendance upon this service is compulsory, but the sermon and other exercises are so full of interest that there is no friction in the matter. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. Societies are very active, and composed of the best students.

In the recent revival conducted outside of school hours under the auspice of these societies, forty convert are reported. Religious enthusiasm has not yet abated, and this number is likely to be largely increased.

A Feast of Music.

A recital of classic songs by Madame Azalia Hackley is announced by Mr. W. B. Hayson for Lincoln Temple choir. We are promised an entire evening with the master song-writers, with Chaminade, that exquisite little French woman and Edward Grieg whose music is as ruggedly grand as his native Norwegian Hills; with the unrivaled Franz Schubert whose marvelous songs are translated from the German into every European language; with our own English contemporary, George Henschel, a composer and singer of recognized merit; together with Brahms, Bemberg and Goring Thomas, while Mascagni and Rossini, or Dvorah, the Bohemian, who develops Negro Melodies into grand orchestral works, will contribute the operatic arias. Here is an appeal to our highest musical taste, which will not come in vain, judging from the cordial support given previous efforts of the Lincoln Temple choir. For many persons will remember having failed to secure standing room at the last two sacred song services, when the choir furnished a program of selections from the works of Mendelssohn, Gounod, respectively.

The Hackley recital of classic songs will be given Friday evening, February 27, at 8 o'clock. All seats are reserved and the number of tickets issued is limited to the seating capacity of the church. Half that number have been sold, so that those who desire to purchase one are advised to do so at once. Tickets for sale at the office of the Record and by members of the choir.
